Collegiate Scholarships:

Once you are accepted into a College or University, it is your responsibility to ask them to send you information on scholarship opportunities you may qualify for. Collegial scholarships are given for many reasons including GPA, family income, or special talents you may bring to the school. Be aware of deadlines and monetary amounts of each scholarship.

Non-Collegiate Scholarships:

These scholarships are given to students from places other than the college or university you are planning on attending. These may include community service groups, foundations, private businesses, ethnic organizations, and religious intuitions. There are thousands of non-collegiate scholarships available to students.

All scholarship opportunities are available through Naviance, our on-line college and career program. If you need a username, please contact Mr. O'Leary at 315-677-7849.
