

GAPS Monday June 6, 2016

Welcome-Thank you everyone who helped make 2015-2016 school year fun and exciting for all of the Grimshaw students.

Announcements-

Grandparent's Day was a success, thanks to all who helped.

Book Fair-was successful. Kristin Colburn will take over next year. A special thank you to Christine Cromley and all who have volunteered.

Grimshaw staff enjoyed ice cream and breakfast pizza for teacher appreciation week and thanked GAPS.

June 3, 2016-4th, 5th, and 6th grade dance-students had fun.

June 4, 2016-Community days: GAPS provided face painter, will increase face painting time from 1.5 hours to 2 hours next year. Face painter was very good.

Slush machine for school picnic 6/14/16 will be rented by GAPS

Staff luncheon 6/21/16: bring salads in the morning

Kiln will be installed in September 2016

Thank you from Mrs. Terrell, prom committee, and parade of baskets committee

GAPS donated $100.00 for Band-Aids, Crayola crayons, and Chap Stick for Golisano

Request for money for PE equipment-on hold as in process of applying for grants

Administrative Report- Jen Blossey, principal

Grimshaw received many calls from the community to donate pennies for Golisano Children's Hospital.

New channel 9 to cover Golisano fundraiser on moving up day. Toni Gary coming from hospital to accept donation.

Jump rope for heart raised $7850.00

Faculty requested GAPS provide case of water to each class for school Olympics

6/8/16-Jarrett J. Krosoczka, author coming-will have drawing workshop with 45 students, will be taking 6th graders

Interviewing for new secretary

Arts and Education will be covering 6th grade field trip, no fundraisers

6th graders will only need to purchase sweatshirts

Voting-

Gifts for custodians and Sue Shannon-yes

Moving up day supplies ($30.00)-yes

Purchase water for Olympics-yes

Smart snacks $3,000-yes