

Legend of Learning - November 2022 - Winonah McCoy

Dear LaFayette Students and Staff:

Congratulations to Ms. Winonah McCoy, Instructional Specialist at the Onondaga Nation School, who was selected as the November 2022 Legend of Learning!

A staff member who nominated Winonah shared the following:

Winonah does an exceptional job in supporting staff, students and the community at the Onondaga Nation School. Winonah provides instructional support to staff members and students during ELA class by working with small groups of students on literacy skills, providing instructional strategies and resources for staff members, and making programmatic recommendations to help support student success. Prior to serving as an instructional specialist Ms. McCoy taught for several years and at multiple grade levels. Winonah connects with students and staff in an authentic way, always building caring, connecting relationships. Ms. McCoy is an active member of several school committees including the Restorative Practices Team (RPT), district professional learning committee, ELA committee, coordinator of ONS building cooking/baking competitions and many more. Ms. McCoy was also selected to represent teachers on the New York State Education Department Blue Ribbon Commission and helps provide recommendations on ways to improve education across the state.

Winonah - Thank you for your continued commitment to excellence!
