2010 ONS Teacher Conference

ONS Cultural Gallery

This is the 4th annual conference held by the Onondaga Nation School to share with other (K-8) educators unique lessons that occur at the Onondaga Nation School.

At this conference you will be able to hear about what makes this school special, learn about how cultural aspects are weaved into the curriculum, how the staff integrates technology with ancient teachings, and come away with downloadable materials that you can use in your classroom right away.

This conference is great for classroom teachers, social studies teachers and teachers interested in Onondaga culture.
